

Second Hindi in Australia National Workshop

ऑस्ट्रेलिया में हिंदी - द्वितीय राष्ट्रीय कार्यशाला

Date

Friday 22nd July

Location

Victorian School of Languages
315 Clarendon Street,
Thornbury, Victoria

Presenters include

Dinesh Srivastava

Editor of Hindi Pushp,
Melbourne

Frank Merlino

Principal,
Victorian School of Languages

Ian Woolford

Hindi Lecturer,
La Trobe University

Mala Mehta

OAM Honorary
Founder/ Coordinator
IABBV Hindi school Inc.

Rekha Rajvanshi

Hindi Teacher
Sydney University

Peter Friedlander

Hindi Lecturer,
Australian National University

Special Display of Hindi books from Australia

Contact

Peter Friedlander
Email: peter.friedlander@anu.edu.au

Registration

There is no charge for registration but so that we can organise catering etc.
you must register by booking
a ticket on EventBrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/hindi-in-australia-second-national-workshop-tickets-26111930487>

Hindi is now recognised in Australia as one of the five priority Asian Languages for study in Australian Schools. This is quite an achievement, however a lot of work remains to be done to convince schools to introduce the language. Last year we held the first national workshop in Canberra. This second national workshop will be held in Melbourne where the host will be the Victorian School of Languages. The workshop offers the opportunity for those interested in the Hindi language to meet and discuss the current state of Hindi in Australia, in education, the community, in the media and in the arts. The workshop includes keynote speakers from around Australia and is open to all interested individuals who register

Program

8.30-9.00 am Arrival and registration

9.00 am welcome

9.15 - 1.00 pm Morning sessions

Primary

Secondary

Tertiary

1.00 – 2.00 pm lunch

2.00 – 5.00 pm Afternoon sessions

Media, culture

Research

Future plans

5.00 pm closure